Introduction
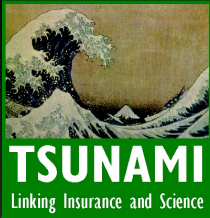

Thanks to:

- TSUNAMI for putting the conference together

- Lloyd's for providing the venue

- Speakers for their time
- Audience for attending

Experiment

- This is the first this has been tried

- We aim to change your perception of us

- Give you an insight of how our industry works

Introduction to today

- Issues facing it

- What we currently use science to do

- What we could use science to do

- Give you a list of hot topics

- Outline one mechanism for interfacing with industry

- Give you the opportunity to submit proposals for review

Agenda

	Subject	Speaker	Position	Company
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee & Registration
11:00 - 11:20	Introduction	David Bland	Director General	Chartered Insurance Institute
11:20 - 11:40	How insurance works	James Sutherland	Head of International Business	Lloyd's Market Risk Unit
11:40 - 12:00		Chris Hewitt	Underwriter	Syndicate 250
12:00 - 12:30	Issues facing the Insurance Industry	Simon Groves	Finance Director	Wren Syndicates Management
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch in Lloyd's
14:00 - 14:15	TSUNAMI	Dr. Dougal Goodman	Deputy Director	British Antarctic Survey
14:15 - 14:40	Project example	Dr. Mark Saunders	Lead Researcher	Benfield Greig Hazard Research
14:40 - 15:00	Existing Research in insurance	Dickey Whitaker	Director	Intermediary Systems Limited
15:00 - 15:15	Barriers to Technology Transfer	Lance Garrard	Director	TSUNAMI
15:15 - 15:35	Opportunities presented by	David Simmons	Director	Benfield Greig
15:35 - 16:00	Afternoon Tea, Coffee
16:00 - 16:20	Hot Research Topics List	James Orr	Project Director	TSUNAMI
16:20 - 16:40	Discussion	Chaired by Dr Dougal Goodman + Pannel of Speakers
16:40 - 17:00	Summary & Close	Dougal Goodman	Deputy Director	British Antarctic Survey